

We at Watts Communications feel it would be too cumbersome to record lengthy programming. It would be costly for each of our 4 radio stations, especially for a small market radio such as ours. As always, we hold ourselves accountable to prevent any indecency that might offend listeners. We prefer to maintain our wholesome, family oriented programming without new FCC rules that would prove costly and without merit.